

Jordi van Hasselt

Biography

My name is Jordi van Hasselt, a Dutchie with a Bachelor's degree in Pharmaceutical Sciences from VU and a Master's degree in Entrepreneurship from VU/UVA. During my time as a student, I gained valuable experience as a Commissioner Acquisition for the student association of Pharmaceutical Sciences, where I developed my skills in running an organization, sales, and relationship building.

Apart from academics, I have a variety of interests, including traveling, trading, cooking, entrepreneurship, sports, and reading. I am known for being ambitious, honest, creative, adventurous, and curious - traits that have helped me to excel both personally and professionally.

Currently, I am seeking for a full-time job in the field of strategic consultancy, brand management, business development, where I can apply my skills and knowledge to drive growth and innovation. I am passionate about working with teams to solve complex challenges and create meaningful change.
